

60504 Rights and Privileges Regarding Employee Organizations

The Board recognizes that College employees are free to join or not to join employee organizations. Board decisions concerning individual employees shall be made without regard to employee membership or non-membership in such organizations.